

Your Flag - will YOU be there?

Join an exciting event in tribute to your Flag, your Country, Fort McHenry, and Volunteers like YOU! Celebrate love of Country and Patriotism with America's youngest Citizens.

The American Flag Foundation
Presents its 25th Annual Living American Flag tribute to Flag Day will be held Tuesday
May 20, 2008

There are many volunteer opportunities to make YOU a part of this historic event.

- Meeting buses
- Escorting teachers/classes
- Hosting refreshments
- Greeting and escorting VIPs
- EMT support/liaison
- Escorting historic characters
- Flag grid
- Registration
- Program and stages support
- Public relations – media contact

Brief orientation at 8:00 a.m. Students start arriving at 9:00 a.m.
Your commitment, if you are able to stay, should be complete by 1:00 p.m.

If you can't join the Team at the Event, why not be a part by publicizing the event in your community or with your local media? Or you can endorse your organization's participation.

Come to the Information and Registration Booth when you arrive, get a name tag and coffee. The entire event is outdoors – dress accordingly, and listen to WBAL Radio for rain cancellation.

Volunteers, please call in advance:
Linda Bishop 410-563-3524
Pat Perlake at 410-836-9295

Fort McHenry is located at 2400 East Fort Avenue, Baltimore, MD 21230.

PO Box 435 • Riderwood, MD 21139
Phone: 410-563-FLAG • Fax: 410-821-1252 •
Web: www.americanflagfoundation.org

PARK INSIDE THE FORT